

Wade Channell

21 years of experience in commercial law, legal reform and economic development:

Currently: USAID Commercial law reform advisor, specializing in secured transactions and constraints to private sector growth;

1992-2005: Consultant on legal reform and economic development projects in Africa, Southeastern Europe and Asia, with particular focus on secured transactions and contract enforcement;

1985-1993: International commercial lawyer with focus on Brazil and Latin America. (Firms: Pinheiro Neto Advogados (Sao Paulo); Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher (New York); Cameron & Hornbostel (New York))