Place: Washington DC

Date: May 22, 2009

AGREEMENT
BETWEEN
THE GENERAL SECRETARIAT OF THE
ORGANIZATION OF AMERICAN STATES
THROUGH
THE DEPARTMENT OF HUMAN DEVELOPMENT,
AND
THE UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS AT DALLAS
FOR
THE OAS HUMAN DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMS

The Parties to this Agreement (the "Agreement"), the General Secretariat of the Organization of American States ("GS/OAS"), a public international organization, with headquarters at 1889 F Street N.W., Washington, D.C. 20006, United States, through its Department of Human Development (hereinafter referred to as "DHD"), represented by Maria Levens, Director of said Department, and The University of Texas at Dallas (hereinafter referred to as "University"), represented by B. Hobson Wildenthal, Executive Vice President and Provost), who is authorized to sign this Agreement on behalf of the University,

Recognizing that the Heads of State and Government of the Americas, gathered at the Second Summit of the Americas (1998), in Santiago, decided to promote development in the region by expanding and strengthening educational opportunities;

Considering that GS/OAS is the central and permanent organ of the Organization of American States (hereinafter referred to as the "OAS") and has the authority to establish and promote relations of cooperation in accordance with Article 112.h of the OAS Charter and OAS General Assembly Resolution AG/RES. 57 (I-O/71);

Recognizing that the Secretary General of the OAS established the DHD as an entity for the promotion, coordination, administration, and facilitation of the planning and execution of Human Development Programs and activities under the Strategic Plan for Partnership for Integral Development of the Inter-American Council for Integral Development;

Considering that the OAS has established the OAS Academic Scholarship program (the "Program") to provide educational opportunities in the Americas, awarding scholarships each year for research and undergraduate and graduate studies, both attendance-based and distance education, and that the Program's coverage and impact are strengthened and augmented through alliances established through the conclusion of agreements with internationally recognized universities that share costs, offer joint scholarships, reduce tuition costs, and wish to join the OAS consortium of universities;

Considering that the University is a public higher education institution and a component of The University of Texas System, founded in accordance with the provisions of the laws of Texas, whose registered office is at 800 W. Campbell Rd., Richardson, Texas, 75080, U.S.A. and whose office with responsibility for this Agreement is the Center for U.S.-Mexico Studies.

Declaring that education is key to strengthening democratic institutions, promoting the development of human potential, equality, and mutual understanding among peoples, that it has positive impact on economic growth, education, and eradication of poverty, and that, to achieve such goals, it is essential to consolidate education of quality that is available to all;

Considering that the University is an internationally recognized academic institution that offers a variety of academic studies at the graduate level; that the University has great interest in serving an international student body through inclusion of foreign students of different nationalities; and that the University wishes to join the OAS Consortium of Universities;

Recognizing that the Parties share an interest in selecting and supporting outstanding individuals of the Americas to study at the University,

Hereby Agree as follows:

ARTICLE I OBJECTIVE AND SCOPE

1.1. The purpose of this Agreement is to establish the terms and conditions for cooperation between the Parties in order to strengthen education and human development within the framework of the OAS Human Development Programs in the Americas through:

a. Co-sponsorship of scholarship recipients<sup>1</sup> selected through the OAS Scholarship and Training Programs ("Scholarship Recipients") to study at the University;

b. Distance learning and teaching techniques through the use of information technologies, especially for co-operative leaders and managers, low income groups, rural communities, and communities of low levels of development; and

c. The use, promotion, and dissemination of information on the Rowe Fund Program, which offers interest-free educational loans to competent individuals of Latin America and the Caribbean to assist them in financing graduate studies, academic training courses, research and/or the last two years of undergraduate studies in accredited United States universities.

ARTICLE II INFORMATION AND COOPERATION

- 2.1 The University shall provide the Department of Human Development (“DHD”) with information and documents on their technical, academic, and professional development programs available for which the Programs shall consider applications from interested candidates in accordance with this Agreement. The programs must be consistent with OAS development priorities and mandates for human resource development in the OAS Member States. GS/OAS, through DHD, shall provide the University with detailed descriptions of the scholarship selection criteria and available benefits of the Program.
- 2.2 The Parties shall exchange relevant information on the University’s students who are OAS scholarship recipients and Rowe Fund loan recipients and who complete studies at the University in order to maintain a database of former OAS scholarship and loan recipients who have graduated from the University, for follow-up and evaluation purposes, among others.
- 2.3 The Parties shall regularly exchange information on the University students who are OAS scholarship and loan recipients and regarding the Parties’ activities of mutual interest. The Parties shall maintain close collaboration in connection with matters of common interest.

ARTICLE III SPECIAL RELATIONS OF COOPERATION

- 3.1 The Parties shall consider developing special relations of cooperation and shall identify projects and activities of common interest. When the corresponding authorization and funds for the implementation of such projects and activities have been obtained, the Parties shall prepare a supplementary agreement or memorandum of understanding (“MOU”) containing the terms and conditions and financial obligations, if any, applicable to each project or activity. These documents shall be signed by a duly authorized representative of each Party and shall specify in detail the responsibilities and mutual obligations of the Parties, including, but not limited to, the nature and amount of the financial commitment assumed by each Party.
- 3.2 The rights and responsibilities of the Parties in publications arising from a specific joint project or activity shall be established as agreed by the Parties in the corresponding supplementary agreement or MOU signed by their duly authorized representatives.

3.3 The University will endeavor to use, to the advantage of OAS scholarship and loan recipients, the linkages and ties that it has developed with other universities and educational institutions through its international activities.

ARTICLE IV PROGRAMS

8.1. The Human Development Programs administered by DHD include the following:

- a) The OAS Academic Studies Scholarship Program: The following web-site provides detailed information on this program: <http://educoas.org/portal/en/oasbecas/about.aspx?culture=en&navid=44>
- b) Professional Development Scholarship Program: The following web-site provides detailed information on this program: <http://www.educoas.org/portal/en/oasbecas/aboutpd.aspx?culture=en&navid=282>
- c) The Educational Portal of the Americas:
The Portal promotes human resource instruction and training in the Americas through the use of information and communication technologies. Training costs are greatly reduced through the use of such tools, which also make such instruction and training accessible to individuals in remote areas and/or of limited means. The following web-site provides detailed information on the Portal: www.educoas.org

ARTICLE V
BASIC PROVISIONS GOVERNING OAS SCHOLARSHIPS, ROWE FUND
LOANS

- 5.1. In accordance with GS/OAS provisions in force, OAS scholarships may only be awarded for a maximum of two years. Candidates selected to receive an OAS scholarship shall be entitled to all of the benefits specified in the recipient's contract with GS/OAS. Such benefits are subject to satisfactory academic progress by the OAS scholarship recipient in his/her program of studies, the recipient's continuation as a full-time student, and the availability of OAS resources.
- 5.2. OAS Academic Scholarships provide funds to cover, in whole or in part, university tuition and mandatory fees, international travel to and from the place of study, health insurance, living expenses, the purchase of books or other study materials, and for a dissertation or for other work required for graduation, up to the maximum amount of US$30,000 per academic year for a maximum of two years. These benefits shall vary depending on the type of scholarship awarded.
- 5.3. The maximum amount of a Rowe Fund loan that is lent to an individual is US$15,000 to study or do research for at least one academic semester, and all studies and research for which the loan is granted need to be completed within a two year period.

ARTICLE VI
RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE PARTIES

- 6.1. The GS/OAS through DHD shall seek to place qualified students in the graduate degree programs, taking into account the Program's budgetary allocation, the regulations adopted by the political organs of the Organization, academic demand in the scholarship cycle, and the University's ability to offer places to students selected by the OAS.
- 6.2. The GS/OAS, through DHD shall promote the University in its outreach efforts in OAS member states.
- 6.3. The GS/OAS, through DHD shall notify each OAS scholarship recipient and Rowe Fund loan recipient at the University that he/she is subject to and is expected to comply with the University's policies, provisions, and general practices.
- 6.4. The University shall have in place and shall make available to OAS scholarship and Rowe Fund loan recipients an international student support network. The University shall provide students with support in their academic studies at the University.
- 6.5. The University's financial support for OAS scholarship and loan recipients enrolled in the University's Ph.D. and Masters Degree Programs shall be as follows:
- a. For the Masters Degree Programs

(i) After an OAS scholarship or loan recipient enrolled in a Masters Program at the University has completed one year of studies under his/her fellowship or loan, the University shall provide him/her with the means to cover tuition and customary and usual fees, room, board, books and materials and health insurance for the second year.

(ii) The financial support provided by the University may be in the form of a scholarship, a paid teaching assistantship, a paid research assistantship or a combination of all three.

(iii) If a masters degree program extends beyond two years, the student will fall within the guidelines of the individual departments of the University for provision of support. Additional department support may be in the form of a scholarship, teaching or research assistantships.

(iv) In compliance with the J-1 visa status of OAS scholarship recipients, the University shall provide OAS/DHD with documentation certifying that the financial support provided to OAS scholarship recipients fully covers the cost of tuition and customary and usual fees, room, board, books, materials and health insurance for above-mentioned periods of study.

b. For the Ph.D. Degree Program

(i) After an OAS scholarship or loan recipient enrolled in a Ph.D. Program at the University has completed two years of studies under his/her fellowship or loan, the University shall provide the student with the means to cover tuition and customary and usual fees, room board, books and materials and health insurance.

(ii) The financial support provided by the University may be in the form of a scholarship, a paid teaching assistantship, a paid research assistantship, or a combination of all three.

(iii) If a Ph.D. degree program extends beyond four years, the student will fall within the guidelines of the individual departments of the University for provision of support such as academic excellence. Additional department support may be in the form of a scholarship, teaching or research assistantships.

(iv) In compliance with OAS/DHD, the University shall sponsor the student's J-1 visa status, according to the University's guidelines, beginning the third year of the Ph.D. program.

c. As an effort to enhance the University's international student population, especially from OAS Member States, the Center for U.S.-Mexico Studies will sponsor the University's application fee for each OAS candidate.

6.6. The University shall be responsible for immediately notifying the DHD in the event that any of the following situations occur with regard to the scholarship and loan recipients: The Recipient: (i) terminates his/her studies at the University for any reason; (ii) does not attend his/her University classes with the regularity expected by the University; (iii) is not meeting the University's academic requirements; (iv) has violated University rules and/or regulations; (v) is suffering from a prolonged illness of any kind; (vi) has been arrested for violation of local laws; (vii) has been disciplined and/or placed on probation by the University; (viii) has been expelled by the University; (ix) has died; (x) has failed to appear at the University to commence his/her studies at the University; or (xi) for any other reason, is no longer enrolled at the University.

6.7. At the end of each academic cycle, the University shall inform the DHD of each OAS scholarship recipient's academic progress. The University shall also review the progress of each OAS scholarship recipient after one year in the program and shall promptly inform the DHD in writing regarding the scholarship recipient's eligibility to remain in the program.

6.8. The University shall promote and disseminate information on the OAS Human Development Programs.

6.9. Access to the Library holdings and databases of the University will be provided to OAS scholarship and loan recipients who are students at the University.

6.10. The University shall accept the documents required by GS/OAS in the scholarship application process (the scholarship application form, curriculum vitae, transcripts, copy of last degree, letters of recommendation and essay on objectives) to evaluate and admit the Awardees<sup>2</sup> to the University as long as they are originals or certified as true and accurate copies of the originals.

7.4. Each Party may change the area of responsibility, designated Coordinator, address, telephone number, fax number, and/or e-mail address indicated herein, by notifying the other Party in writing.

ARTICLE VIII DISPUTE RESOLUTION

- 8.1. The Parties shall first seek to resolve through discussions between them disputes arising between the Parties under this Agreement and any supplementary agreements pursuant hereto. Should that prove unsuccessful, then either Party may submit the dispute to final and binding arbitration in accordance with the Arbitration Rules of the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law ("UNCITRAL"). The applicable law is the law of the District of Columbia; however, the arbitrators may decide as amiable compositeur or ex aequo et bono. The site of arbitration shall be Washington, D.C. Arbitration proceedings shall be conducted in English.
- 8.2. Nothing in this Agreement constitutes an express or implied waiver of the privileges and immunities of the Parties and their personnel.

ARTICLE IX GENERAL PROVISIONS

- 9.1. The Parties shall maintain the highest standards of ethics and administrative transparency in all actions and activities carried out in connection with this Agreement. In addition, GS/OAS, to the extent applicable, and without prejudice to its privileges and immunities, mentioned in Article 8.2, above, and the University shall comply with the provisions of the Inter-American Convention against Corruption and the applicable provisions of the country where the programs, projects, and/or activities are implemented, in accordance with Article 3.1. Failure to comply with the instant provision shall constitute sufficient grounds for early termination of this Agreement, in accordance with the provisions of Article 9.5, below.
- 9.2. This Agreement may only be amended by prior written agreement between the duly authorized representatives of the Parties. The instruments of amendment shall be signed and dated by the Parties, and annexed hereto.
- 9.3. This Agreement shall enter into force as of the date of signature by the authorized representatives of the Parties and shall remain in force in accordance with the provisions of Article 9.5.
- 9.4. This Agreement shall not be construed or applied in any way so as to restrict the authority of GS/OAS to modify its Human Development Programs. Should there be any change in those Programs with implications for this Agreement, the Agreement shall be amended or terminated.
- 9.5. This Agreement may be terminated by mutual agreement or may be terminated by either Party without cause upon no less than 30 days' prior written notice to the other Party. Such termination shall have no adverse effect upon OAS scholarship recipients and Rowe Fund loan recipients who were admitted to the University under the terms of this Agreement prior to its termination, and the University shall allow those OAS scholarship recipients and Rowe Fund loan recipients to complete their program of study under the terms of this Agreement. The termination of this Agreement shall not affect any supplementary agreements as the Parties may have signed for the implementation of programs, projects and/or activities under the provisions of Article 3.1 of this Agreement for which financing has been duly provided. Those agreements shall remain in force for the full term as specified therein, unless terminated by the Parties as permitted under those agreements.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the duly authorized representatives of the Parties have executed this Agreement on the dates and at the locations set forth below.
