surface and underwater.

29.—(1) The Authority may deal with surface water and underground water as one source of supply if, in its opinion, the surface water and underground water are so inter-connected as to constitute one source of supply.

(2) In any area declared to be an emergency area pursuant to section 30 the Authority may, if it is of the opinion that it is in the best interest of the management of the water resources of Jamaica, deal with all licences under this Act to abstract and use water from an inter-connected source of supply on the basis of equality of standing before the Authority.

30.—(1) On the recommendation of the Authority the Minister, after consultation with the Advisory Committee, may by order declare an area to be an emergency area if he is satisfied that, on account of drought or any other condition or emergency in that area, the supply of water from any source is or is likely to become insufficient as respects its quantity or unsuitable as respects its quality (or both) to satisfy the requirements of all licences granted under this Act to abstract and use water.

Minister may declare emergency
area.

(2) An order made under subsection (1) shall be published in the Gazette and at least once in each of two successive weeks in a daily newspaper circulating in Jamaica and may be revoked by the Minister if, having regard to the recommendation of the Authority and after consultation with the Advisory Committee, he is of the opinion that the circumstances which justified the making of the order no longer exist.

Powers of Authority in emergency
area.

- (a) the need to satisfy the requirements of public water supplies as a matter of priority; and

(b) subject to subsection (2), the principle that where full abstraction and use of water which may be abstracted under a licence has been maintained, any restriction imposed in respect of such licence shall be in proportion to the restriction imposed on all other licences in the area so declared.

(2) If, in any case, the Authority is satisfied that there has been misuse or wasteful use of water abstracted under a licence granted under this Act, it shall not be bound by the provisions of sub-paragraph (b) of subsection (1).

(3) An appeal shall lie under section 43 (1) from a decision made by the Authority under subsection (1) of this section.

Sources of supply reserved for public purposes.

32.—(1) On the recommendation of the Authority the Minister, after consultation with the Advisory Committee, may by order (hereinafter referred to as “reservation order”) reserve the whole or part of a source of supply (hereinafter referred to as “reserved water”) for a public purpose and may indicate in such order the person or authority entitled to use the reserved water.

(2) The Minister, acting on recommendation and after consultation as aforesaid, may, if he is satisfied that the circumstances under which a reservation order was made in pursuance of subsection (1) no longer justify maintaining such order, revoke the order.

(3) An order made in pursuance of subsection (1) and any order made revoking a previous order shall be published in the Gazette, and at least once in each of two successive weeks in a daily newspaper circulating in Jamaica.

33.—(1) If the person or authority entitled to use the reserved water applies to the Authority for a licence to abstract and use that water, the Authority may by notice in writing addressed to the holder revoke or vary the licence of any person who, before such application was made, was entitled pursuant to a licence under this Act to abstract and use that water.

(3) Where a licence which is to be revoked or varied in pursuance of this section was granted after the date of publication of a reservation order made in pursuance of section 32 (1) no compensation shall be payable in respect of any loss or damage suffered by the holder of a licence which has been revoked or varied in pursuance of this section.

PART IV. Control and Protection of Underground Water Control of Well-Drilling

(2) Subsection (1) shall not apply in relation to the holder of a licence granted under Part III, the terms of which authorize him to sink, construct, enlarge or otherwise alter a well.

(3) The provisions of regulations made under this Act shall have effect in relation to the grant, suspension and revocation of the Authority's consent pursuant to subsection (1) and otherwise in relation to such consent.

(4) The provisions of regulations made under this Act requiring a person to keep a journal and to furnish the Authority with information in connection with any well which that person is authorized to sink shall have effect in relation to a person who has obtained the Authority's consent under this section; but where any person contracts to sink a well on land belonging to or occupied by any other person, and the execution of the work is under the control of the contractor, the contractor and no other person shall be deemed to be the person sinking the well for the purposes of such provisions as aforesaid.

- (a) holds a valid licence under this Act to abstract and use water;
- (b) has obtained written consent from the Authority in pursuance of section 34 (1); or
- (c) is, by virtue of the provisions of section 19 (2), entitled to abstract and use water without a licence.

(3) For the purposes of subsection (1) a person shall be regarded as practising as a well-driller if he sinks, constructs, enlarges or otherwise alters a well for hire or reward whether or not such sinking, construction, enlargement or alteration occurs on one occasion only.

36.—(1) Any person who proposes to construct any new boring, or to enlarge or otherwise alter any existing boring, for the purpose of searching for or extracting minerals or other substances under a relevant statute shall take such measures as may be required by the Authority for conserving underground water, being measures which, in the opinion of the Authority, will not interfere with the winning of minerals or other substances and shall submit to the Authority, at its request, such data or other information as the Authority may require in connection with such construction or enlargement, as the case may be.

(2) Where underground water interferes or threatens to interfere with the execution or operation of any underground works, it shall not be unlawful under this subsection to cause or allow the water to run to waste so far as may be

- (b) to impose special requirements and restrictions with respect to artesian wells, for the purpose of preventing waste or contamination of water, or loss of artesian pressure; and
- (c) to carry out programmes for the recharge of aquifers, and for the purpose of paragraph (a) “safe yield” means the amount of water which may be abstracted from an aquifer at a rate which would not reduce the supply to such an extent as would render such abstraction harmful to the aquifer itself or to the quality of the water and would not affect the economic feasibility of other abstractions.

PART V. Control of Water Quality
Water Quality Control Plans

Water Quality Control Areas.

39. If the Minister, on the recommendation of the Authority and after consultation with the Advisory Committee, is satisfied that a plan of co-ordinated measures for the protection of the quality of water resources in any area is necessary in the public interest, he may make an order defining the area in question, and declaring the area to be a Water Quality Control Area.

- (b) the abstraction of water from the same source of supply but at different points or by different means;
- (c) the abstraction of water for use for different purposes.

(7) Nothing in paragraph (6) shall be construed to preclude a grant by the Authority, if it thinks appropriate in any case, of two or more licences to the same person to be held concurrently in respect of the same source of supply, if the licences authorize the abstraction of water at different points of the source or by different means.

Provisions
as to certain conditions in licence.

6. (1) Where a licence is granted under regulation 5 subject to the condition that specified works should be constructed within a specified period, the Authority may, on the expiration of that period, extend the period for the construction of the works if the person to whom the licence was granted so requests.

(2) On the expiration of the specified period referred to in paragraph (1) or of such extended period as may be granted under that paragraph or on completion of the works, if that is earlier, the Authority shall cause the works to be inspected for the purpose of satisfying itself that the works have been properly constructed.

Licence not transfer-able.

7. Without prejudice to regulation 16, a licence granted under regulation 5 is not transferable.

Renewal of licence.

8. (1) A licence granted under regulation 5 may, on its expiration, be renewed by the Authority if—

- (a) the person to whom it was granted applies to the Authority for renewal of the licence not later than six months before the date on which the licence expires; and
- (b) the Authority is satisfied that there has been no material change in the circumstances which existed at the time the licence was first granted that would justify dealing with the application in the manner specified in paragraph (2).

(2) Where the Authority—

- (a) after the time specified in paragraph (1) (a), receives an application for renewal of a licence; or
- (b) determines that a material change of circumstances has occurred since the licence was first granted, it shall deal with the application as if it were a fresh application made under regulation 3 and accordingly, all the provisions of this Part relating to the application for a licence shall apply.

Revocation,
etc. of licence on application of licensee.

9. (1) On the application of a person to whom a licence was granted under regulation 5, the Authority may,

- (a) revoke or suspend the licence, subject to such terms and conditions as the Authority may impose for the purpose of protecting waters, the environment or public health; or
- (b) subject to paragraph (2), vary the licence.

(2) In considering an application for the variation of a licence, the Authority shall have regard to the matters specified in paragraphs (a) to (h) of regulation 4, unless the variation applied for is restricted to reducing the quantity of water authorized to be extracted under a licence.

Revocation,
suspension of licence for breach of Act.

10. (1) Subject to paragraph (2), the Authority may, by notice addressed to the person to whom a licence was granted under regulation 5, revoke the licence or suspend it for such period as the Authority thinks appropriate if it is satisfied—

- (a) that a breach of any provision of the Act or of these Regulations or of any term or condition subject to which the licence was granted has been committed; or
- (b) that there has been waste or misuse of the water which may be abstracted under the licence.

(2) Except as provided in paragraph (3), the Authority shall, before revoking or suspending a licence, serve on the person to whom the licence was granted a notice in writing—

- (a) specifying the breach or default on which the Authority relies and requiring him to remedy it (if it is capable of remedy) within such time as may be specified in the notice; and
- (b) informing him that he may apply to the Authority to be heard on the matter within such time as may be specified in the notice.

(3) The Authority shall not be obliged to serve a notice pursuant to paragraph (2) in relation to any breach or default if an enforcement notice pursuant to section 41 of the Act is in effect in relation to such breach or default.

11. (1) Where a licence has been granted under regulation 5 conditional on the availability of excess water, then such licence shall have effect only so long as excess water is available for abstraction and use in accordance with that licence; and accordingly, where it becomes apparent to the Authority that such excess water will become unavailable for abstraction and use under any licence granted as aforesaid, the Authority shall notify the holder of the licence in writing of the date (not being less than thirty days from the date of service of the notice) on which the revocation of the licence shall take effect.

Revocation
of licence granted for use of excess water.

(2) In paragraph (1) "excess water" means such of the flow of a river, stream or watercourse which, after satisfying the requirements of persons who are entitled under the Act to abstract and use the water of that river, stream or watercourse, would ordinarily run to waste.

12. (1) Where the Authority is of the opinion that the person to whom a licence was granted under regulation 5 has not made full use of the licence during the preceding eighteen months, it may by notice sent by registered mail to that person call upon him to show cause in writing within sixty days of the date of service of the notice why the licence should not be revoked or varied in the manner specified in the notice and informing him of his right to be heard in the matter within the period specified in paragraph (3).

Revocation,
variation
of licence
for non-use.

(2) The Authority shall—

- (a) consider any statement submitted pursuant to paragraph (1);
- (b) if so required, give the person who made the statement an opportunity to be heard whether in person or by his legal representative; and
- (c) thereafter declare whether the licence is revoked, varied in such respects as may be specified, or whether it should be unchanged.

(3) If within sixty days of the date of service of the notice referred to in paragraph (1) the person to whom the notice was sent does not submit to the Authority a statement in writing of the reasons why the licence should not be revoked or suspended, the Authority may declare the licence revoked or varied, as the Authority thinks fit, and shall send to such person by registered mail a notice of that declaration.

Revocation, variation, suspension of licence to accommodate other user.

13. (1) If the Authority is satisfied that a licence granted under regulation 5 should be revoked, suspended or varied so as to accommodate the needs of another user of the water to which that licence relates, it may revoke or vary the licence by notice in writing addressed to the holder, and thereupon the licence shall be revoked or shall have effect only as so varied, as the case may be.

(2) A person whose licence has been revoked, suspended or varied pursuant to paragraph (1) is entitled to receive compensation from the user whose needs for the water have been accommodated and, in the absence of agreement between them, the amount of compensation shall be determined—

- (a) if the amount claimed does not exceed $10,000 by a Resident Magistrate's Court; or
- (b) in any other case, by a Judge in Chambers.

Substitution of supply or source of water.

14. (1) Subject to any powers exercisable under the Act in relation to an emergency area, if the Authority is of the opinion that it is in the best interests of the management, conservation, development and use of the water resources it may, in relation to any licence granted under regulation 5, substitute a supply or source of surface water for a supply or source of underground water, and vice versa.

(2) If the substitution is made for the purposes of accommodating the needs of another user of water, the Authority in exercising its powers under paragraph (1) may stipulate that compensation be paid by that person to any person whose licence has been varied on account of the substitution and if there is no agreement as to the amount of compensation, the matter shall be determined in the manner specified in regulation 13.

Variation of licence for certain other purposes.

15. If the Authority considers it necessary in the public interest, it may vary a licence to abstract and use water in respect of the points or methods of abstraction, or both, for the purpose of—

- (a) protecting the source of water to which the licence relates from depletion or pollution;
- (b) ensuring the efficient allocation and use of water; or
- (c) protecting the rights of third parties, and no liability shall attach to the Authority by reason of such variation nor shall the liability of the holder of the licence to pay any charge or fee be affected.

16. (1) Where any person succeeds to the interests of a holder of a licence granted under this Part (hereinafter referred to as "the original licensee") in circumstances, whether on the death of the original licensee, or otherwise, such that the continued operation of those interests involves the question of a grant of a licence under this Part in like terms as that held by the original licensee, then, subject to paragraph (2), that person may apply to the Authority for such a licence.

Effect of succession to interests of licensee.

(2) An application under paragraph (1) shall be made to the Authority within thirty days of the applicant's acquisition of the interest or such longer period, not exceeding ninety days as the Authority may in any case allow, and the Authority may, without going through the process required by regulation 3 (3) and regulation 4, grant the applicant a licence, if it thinks fit, on the terms applicable to the original licensee.

(3) Where a person to whom paragraph (1) refers fails to notify the Authority within the time allowed under paragraph (2) or the Authority does not grant him a licence pursuant to that paragraph, such person shall not continue to abstract and use water except under and in accordance with a licence granted under regulation 5.

17. (1) The owner of land over which an easement was constituted by agreement may not terminate the easement unless—

- (a) he serves a notice upon the person to whom the easement was granted requiring him within thirty days of the notice, to show cause to the Authority why the easement should not be terminated and such person fails to show any or sufficient cause; and
- (b) not later than the date of service of the notice referred to in paragraph (a) he notifies the Authority of his intention to terminate the easement and submits to the Authority a copy of such notice.

(2) An easement constituted under section 27 of the Act shall, if not earlier terminated, expire with the expiration of the licence in relation to which it was granted.

PART III. Protection of Underground Water

18. (1) An application for the consent of the Authority required under section 34 of the Act to sink, enlarge or otherwise alter a well—

- (a) shall be made to the Authority in the form set out as Form C in the Schedule; and
- (b) shall be accompanied by such maps, documents or information as the Authority may require and by the relevant fee.

Consent for well-drilling. Schedule. Form C.

(2) The Authority may grant its consent subject to such conditions as it thinks fit or withhold its consent and where the consent is granted, it shall be in the form set out at Form D in the Schedule.

Form D.

(3) If the Authority withholds its consent, it shall state in writing the reasons for its decision and inform the applicant of his right under the Act to appeal against that decision.

(4) A consent granted pursuant to paragraph (2) may be suspended or revoked—

- (a) at the request in writing of the person to whom the consent was given; or
- (b) by the Authority by notice in writing addressed to that person, for breach of any requirements of the Act or these Regulations relating to the consent or for the breach of any of the conditions subject to which the consent was granted.

(5) Before suspending or revoking its consent under sub-paragraph (b) of paragraph (4) the Authority shall serve on the person to whom the consent was granted a notice in writing—

- (a) specifying the breach on which the Authority relies and requiring him to remedy it (if it is capable of remedy) within such time as may be specified in the notice; and
- (b) informing him that he may apply to the Authority to be heard on the matter within such time as may be specified in the notice.

Well-driller's licence. Schedule. Form E.

19. (1) An application for a well-driller's licence required under section 35 of the Act may be made to the Authority in the form set out as Form E in the Schedule and shall be accompanied by such documents or information as the Authority may require and by the relevant fee.

(2) The Authority may, subject to such terms and conditions as it thinks fit, grant a well-driller's licence or refuse to grant it but shall grant such a licence if it is satisfied that the applicant has the requisite professional qualification.

Form F.

(3) A licence granted under paragraph (2) shall be in the form set out as Form F in the Schedule.

(4) If the Authority refuses to grant a well-driller's licence, it shall state in writing the reasons for its decision and inform the applicant of his right under the Act to appeal against the decision.

Revocation of well-driller's licence.

20. (1) A well-driller's licence may be suspended or revoked—

- (a) at the request of the holder of the licence; or
- (b) by the Authority by notice in writing addressed to that person on account of a breach of any provisions of the Act or of these Regulations relating to the sinking of wells or of any of the terms and conditions subject to which the licence was granted.

(2) Before suspending or revoking the licence of a well-driller under sub-paragraph (b) of paragraph (1), the Authority shall serve on him a notice in writing—

- (a) specifying the breach on which the Authority relies and requiring him to remedy it (if it is capable of remedy) within such time as may be specified in the notice; and
- (b) informing him that he may apply to the Authority to be heard on the matter within such time as may be specified in the notice.

21. The provisions of regulation 8 shall apply, mutatis mutandis, in respect of the renewal of a well-driller's licence as they apply in respect of the renewal of a licence to abstract and use water.

Renewal of well-driller's licence.

PART IV. Miscellaneous Powers of Authority

22. (1) The Authority may, by notice in writing, require any person who—

Power to require installation of measuring devices, information.

(2) Any person on whom a notice is served under paragraph (1) and who considers that the directions contained in the notice are unreasonable or unduly onerous may make representations to the Minister with respect to them; and the Minister after consultation with the Authority may, if it thinks fit, direct the Authority to revoke or modify them.

(3) Any person who fails to comply with a notice under this regulation shall be liable to the penalties specified in section 44 (2) of the Act.

23. (1) Any person duly authorized in writing by the Authority may at any reasonable time enter upon any land for the purpose of—

(5) The Authority shall, on demand being made by the owner or any other person having an interest over any land, live or dead stock, crops, trees, buildings or works that are damaged by the Authority in the exercise of any functions under the Act or these Regulations, pay to the owner or other person fair and reasonable compensation in respect of such damage.

PART VI. General

Procedure on receipt of application for licence.

24. (1) On receipt of an application for a licence to abstract and use water the Authority shall cause a notice of the application—

- (a) to be published in the Gazette and once in each of two successive weeks in a daily newspaper circulating in Jamaica; and
- (b) to be served on any person or body who, in the opinion of the Authority, may be affected by the proposed abstraction and use of water.

(2) The Authority shall also submit an application referred to in paragraph (1) to any agency or department of Government exercising functions in relation to water and such agency or department may, within the specified period, make such recommendations as it thinks fit respecting the application.

(3) A notice under paragraph (1) shall—

- (a) indicate the place at which the application and all documents submitted with it may be inspected by the public, free of charge, at all reasonable hours during the specified period; and
- (b) state that any person may, within the specified period, make representations to the Authority with respect to the application.

(4) In this regulation “specified period” means a period of thirty days or such further period as the Authority may allow from the date on which a notice of the application was, pursuant to paragraph (1) (a), first published in such daily newspaper or, from the date of submission of the application to such department or agency, as the case may be.

25. (1) The Authority shall keep, in such manner as it thinks fit, a register or registers in which shall be kept a record of—

- (a) every licence granted to abstract and use water;
- (b) any consent granted for well-drilling; and
- (c) every well-driller's licence, and all actions taken under the Act or these Regulations in respect of any such licence or consent shall be entered in the appropriate register.

(2) Every register to which paragraph (1) refers shall be open for inspection by the public at the offices of the Authority at all reasonable hours, free of charge, and the Authority shall arrange for copies of any entry in any such register as aforesaid to be provided to any person on his request if he pays such fee as may be prescribed.

26. An easement constituted under the Act by agreement shall—

- (a) where the land over or in favour of which the easement was created is under the operation of the Registration of Titles Act, be registered by the Registrar of Titles; and
- (b) where such land as aforesaid is not under the operation of the Registration of Titles Act, be recorded by the Deputy Keeper of the Records, on production of the agreement or, as the case may be, order relating to the easement or a copy of such agreement and a diagram prepared by the Director of Surveys or any commissioned land surveyor showing the position of the easement.

27. (1) Any person who, pursuant to a licence granted under this Act to abstract and use water, is authorized to sink a well and to abstract underground water or who, in pursuance of the provisions of section 19 (2), intends to sink a well and to abstract underground water shall, upon the commencement of such work, keep a journal of the progress of the work which shall include measurements of the strata passed through and of the levels at which water is struck and subsequently rests and shall, when so required by the Authority, keep specimens of the material excavated from the well, and shall allow any person authorized in writing by the Authority for the purpose at all reasonable times—

- (a) to have free access to any such well;
- (b) to inspect the well and the material excavated therefrom;
- (c) to take specimens of such material and of water abstracted from the well; and
- (d) to inspect and take copies of or extracts from the journal required to be kept under this subsection.

(2) The person sinking any such well shall, within thirty days after completion or abandonment of the work, send a complete copy of the journal kept under subsection (1) to the Authority and shall also send to the Authority particulars of any test made of the flow of water before such completion or abandonment, specifying the rate of flow throughout the test and the duration of the test and also, where

(3) Where any such well is sunk in connection with an existing pumping station, the particulars of any test to be supplied to the Authority shall also include the rate of pumping at the existing works during the test.

(4) Where the person sinking a well on any land is not the occupier of the land, the obligation to allow a person authorized by the Authority to exercise the rights specified in sub-paragraphs (a) to (d) of paragraph (1) shall be the obligation of the occupier as well as the person sinking the well.

(5) The Authority may waive any or all the requirements prescribed in paragraphs (1) to (3) in respect of the sinking of any well for purposes of abstracting underground water—

- (a) if such well does not reach a depth of fifty feet; or
- (b) where the Authority is satisfied that in all the circumstances, compliance with any requirements of those paragraphs is impracticable or undue expense would be thereby incurred.

Provisions relating to appeal.

28. (1) Every appeal to the Minister pursuant to section 43 of the Act against a decision of the Authority—

- (a) shall be commenced by a notice of appeal which shall be addressed to and served upon the Permanent Secretary; and

(2) The notice of appeal may be in the form of a letter and shall set forth clearly the grounds of the appeal, and the date upon which the subject matter of the appeal arose, and there shall be attached to such notice copies of any correspondence or other documents or statements verified by statutory declaration of facts relating to the subject matter of the appeal.

(3) The appellant shall send a copy of the notice of appeal to the Authority and shall also serve a copy thereof, together with copies of any documents attached thereto, upon the respondent within the same time as a notice of appeal is required under paragraph (1) to be served, and an affidavit verifying such service shall be delivered to the Permanent Secretary.

(4) Within seven days of the receipt of such affidavit, the Permanent Secretary may request the Authority to furnish a statement in writing setting out the reasons for the decisions complained of, and the Authority shall comply therewith as soon as practicable after the request is made.

(5) The Minister may order that any books, papers or other documents, relating to the subject matter of the appeal which are in the possession of either party shall be produced by the party in possession thereof.
