PROPOSED WORK PLAN OF THE SUB-GROUP FOR INTERNATIONAL COOPERATION AND FORFEITURE IN ITS VARIOUS FORMS 2012-2014

Proposed work plan of the Sub-Group for International Cooperation and Forfeiture in its various forms 2012-2014

The sub-working group will focus its work plan in the following manner:

- The Delegation of Costa Rica aims to develop the regulatory aspects for the creation and development of organizations specializing in property management, and therefore proposes that through the BIDAL Project to develop a first draft to be presented to the Working Group of forfeiture for discussion and development. This draft will be submitted in May 2012.
- Development of proceedings referred to the progress in the implementation of various systems to be developed in asset forfeiture.
- Identify among member countries effective mechanisms to share forfeited assets among in order to develop a recommendation for the implementation of this mechanism.
