	governments to continue to promote the development, incorporation, and use of ICTs, and to request CITEL and the OAS General Secretariat to support such efforts. 2. To express its satisfaction with the work of CITEL to identify measures to strengthen hemispheric cooperation for the development of telecommunication infrastructure, and in creating an important platform for dialogue and exchange of experiences in order to move forward in this area. 3. To instruct the General Secretariat to implement the programs and projects set out in the Strategic Plan of CITEL for 2006-2010, especially those referring to the work of the second phase of the Agenda for Connectivity in the Americas, promotion of the use of ICTs and the availability of broadband infrastructure, further human resource development and training, and preparation and follow-up on inter-American proposals, positions, and coordinated views for high-level international telecommunication meetings, so as to strengthen the regional position in the international context. 4. To instruct CITEL, with support from the General Secretariat: a. To continue reviewing, in the framework of the second phase of the Agenda for Connectivity in the Americas, the status of telecommunication/ICT services and connectivity; b. To identify the sectors with critical deficiencies where priority action is needed; and c. To present each year a report to the General Assembly that contains concrete proposals on how best to improve the status of ICTs in the countries, for wide dissemination in the member states, the private sector, and other interested groups. 6. To invite all member states to attach high priority to allocating resources to the telecommunication sector and to step up cooperation between developed and developing countries, as well as among developing countries, with a view to facilitating access to telecommunications infrastructure, especially in rural areas. 7. To urge the Secretary General to include CITEL projects and programs among such priorities as may arise for the mobilization of external resources. 8. To urge the member states and permanent observers, individuals, and national and international public and
