

DECIDES:

PCC.I/DEC. 76 (XII-08) ¹	To forward to the Members of CITEI a survey on the above-captioned matter containing the following questions, since neither member states nor Associate Members should be unaware that in their countries different problems have been detected involving the inappropriate use of numbering resources in the provision/operation of telecommunication services – fixed or mobile. ANNEX TO DECISION PCC.I/DEC. 76 (XII-08) INAPPROPRIATE USE OF NUMBERING RESOURCES IN THE PROVISION/OPERATION OF TELECOMMUNICATION SERVICES <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. In your country's telecommunication legislation, the activities related to the problems detected/reported are they defined as: fraud, irregular practices, anti-competitive practices, or other? Please list such practices and how they are defined in law.2. With what types of services and/or communications do such problems arise?3. Are such acts subject to any types of sanctions?4. Based on the foregoing replies and in order of importance, indicate the most frequent practices occurring on your country's networks.5. Do you consider that the legislation and regulations in force in your country have been updated in keeping with the advent of the new technologies and convergence of services? If no, please summarize what types of provisions should be updated: technical, criminal, procedural, etc.6. If your country does not have legislation and/or regulations pertaining to such practices, has a specific proposal or proposals been made in your country to regulate them?7. What types of communications do such irregularities involve (incoming international traffic, national or local communications, etc.)? Please describe briefly.8. Are non-voice communications (Internet, data) considered telecommunication services, information services, other?
--	---

¹ CCP.I-TEL/doc. 1369/08

	9. Are voice over broadband communications regulated? Please describe briefly.
--	--